

Court News.

Early on Monday forenoon the Count de la Motte Piguet, commanding H. M. C. M.'s ship Lamproie, accompanied by the Consul of France, had an audience of the King, to take leave, on his departure to join the Admiral and return to France.

The Count took leave of the King in the following terms:

[TRANSLATION.]

Departing to join the flag of my Admiral, I bear the indelible reminiscences of the evidences of esteem with which His Majesty, the King of Hawaii, has been pleased to honor me. I will report to the Admiral every thing kind and friendly which His Majesty has said to me for him; also what he has declared in regard to our honorable Consul, Mr. Du-doit; and, on my return to my noble country, I will tell how much the King of the French, his Royal Family, and France itself, are respected and loved in the Hawaiian Islands.

I thank Your Majesty's Ministers for the kind relations which they have maintained with me.

His Majesty replied as follows:

Salutations to you, Count de la Motte. I wish that you may find the Admiral well. Assure him, from me, that Frenchmen are respected and loved on my Islands from the good conduct they observe, and by the course pursued by the Admiral, by the Consul of France and by you, Count, all tends to harmony and mutual good will.

I pray God that, on your arrival in France, you may find His Majesty, Louis Philippe, his good and excellent Queen, and the Royal Family in good health. The happiness of your great nation, and the peace of the world depend upon that illustrious Dynasty. May God preserve it to the end of time.

Extract from a letter to the Editor, from Hon Geo. P. Marsh, Member of Congress from Vermont, dated March 16th, 1844—

"It is, as far as I know, unique in its design and character, and both its plan and execution are well calculated for the promotion of the object at which it aims. As a whole, it is a highly important contribution to the literature of commerce, and it embodies a mass of practical knowledge and valuable detail, which would hardly otherwise be accessible."
